

Research Impact Form

This form should be filled in and submitted by all researchers/research groups. It is designed to reflect a statement from the researcher in case his published research impacts on any of the following levels:

1. The published research has positive impact on students' learning.
2. The published research has societal impact and significance nationally and/or regionally.

Type of research:	<input type="checkbox"/> Basic*	<input type="checkbox"/> Applied
Research Title:
Researcher Name / Department:
Is there any positive impact expected on students learning? If yes, please state how.
Is there any societal impact and significance nationally and/or regionally? If yes, please state how.

* Basic research is conducted for the purpose of advancing theory and scientific knowledge.

 Applied research is conducted to solve practical problems.